

Build the multiplication table by counting in equal steps.

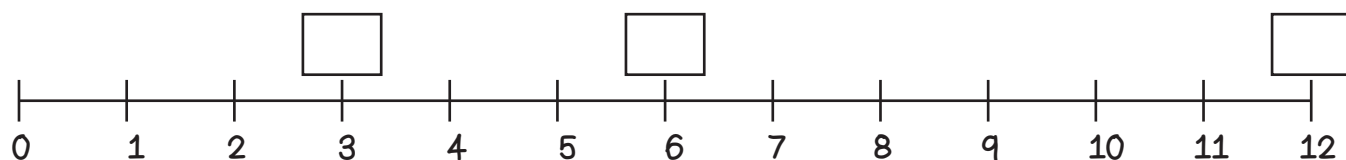

Use doubling to find these facts.

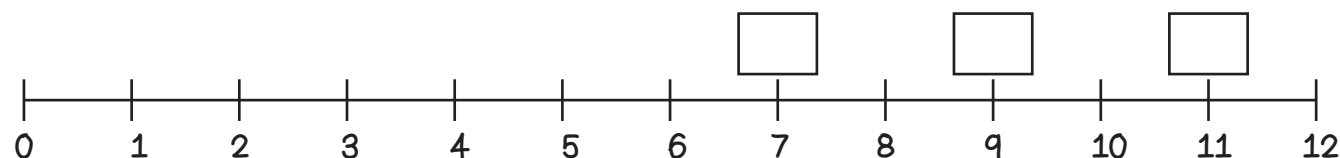

Use place value then halving to find these facts.

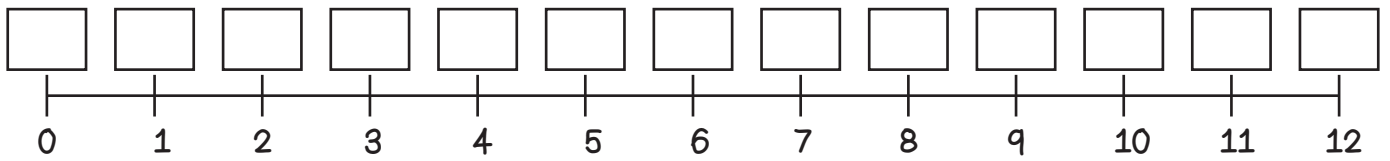

Use doubling to find these facts.

Use the facts you have found to find the last three facts.

Complete the multiplication table.

What do you notice?

